

Lap Game

Materials needed:

A small gift

Directions to play:

As you read the following statements aloud, ask your guests to move one seat to the right if the statement is true. And yes—if the seat is occupied, they can just go ahead and sit on the next person's lap! Whoever gets back to her seat first is the winner.

- Have you ever attended a Pure Romance Party?
- Is tonight an escape from motherhood?
- How many of you feel dissatisfied with your job?
- How many of you have debt you'd like to eliminate?
- With an extra $800 a month, would you pay off debt?
- With an extra $800 a month, would you go shopping?
- How many of you know at least five women who would love to have a party?
- Do you have a micro-manager boss watching over your every move?
- Is tonight an escape from a corporate job?

If you need to, ask more questions until you have a winner. Give a small gift to the winner, and tell everyone that Pure Romance provides the ultimate gift of freedom to women just like them.

Purpose:

This game will help you learn about your guests and their current work and home life situations. This will also help you know how to approach each guest with the business opportunity in the shopping room.
